Maguire, St. Louis: Gents—Yours of the 31st uit., with case of one dozen Cundurango Liver and Blood Bitters came duly to hand. You will please accept my thanks for your genererosity. I will try to put the medicine "where it will do the most good." I have given one bottle to a friend of mine who resides in Brooklyn, both himself and wife have taken it, and their testimony is the same as mine. I first met with it in Houston, Texas, afterwards returned to my home in Austin, where I have the Texas branch office of my paper. My Houston bottle was used up, and I found on trial that I could not obtain a single bottle in all Austin, for I went to every druggist in the place and there are some five, but each house told me they intended to order it, on the strength of my recommendation. Ere coming to New York I was in Galveston, and bought a bottle of Robirds, an old friend and a good house. I had no idea then that I could not obtain it in New York; but after my Galveston bottle was used up. I started to find more and a good house.
